

Abstract

This unique, one piece utility tool is made of solid plastic, in several colors. Its purpose is to allow the user to fill the dispenser with can pet food from the top of the unit, and retrieve one can at a time from the bottom of the stack inside the dispenser..

This unit also allows the user to view how many cans are left in the unit by looking through the view window on front of unit. This will hang vertically on the wall or flat surface.